5.0 Public Participation Plan

FTA Circular 4702.1B, Chapter III, Paragraph 4.a.4: Every Title VI Plan shall include the following information: A public participation plan that includes an outreach plan to engage minority and limited English proficient populations, as well as a summary of outreach efforts made since the last Title VI Plan submission. A recipient's targeted public participation plan of minority populations may be part of efforts that extend more broadly to include constituencies that are traditionally underserved, such as people with disabilities, low-income populations, and others.

The Public Participation Plan (PPP) for Glascock County Transit was developed to ensure that all members of the public, including minorities and Limited English Proficient (LEP) populations, are encouraged to participate in the decision making process for Glascock County Transit. Policy and service delivery decisions need to take into consideration community sentiment and public opinion based upon well-executed outreach efforts. The public outreach strategies described in the PPP are designed to provide the public with effective access to information about Glascock County Transit services and to provide a variety of efficient and convenient methods for receiving and considering public comment prior to implementing changes to services. The PPP is included as Appendix F to this Title VI Plan.

Current Outreach Efforts

Glascock County Transit is required to submit a summary of public outreach efforts made over the last three (3) years. The following is a list and short description of Glascock County Transit's recent, current, and planned outreached activities.

- We run ads in our local newspaper to keep our Glascock County citizens informed on transit

6.0 Language Assistance Plan

FTA Circular 4702.1B, Chapter III, Paragraph 9: Recipients shall take reasonable steps to ensure meaningful access to benefits, services, information, and other important portions of their programs and activities for individuals who are limited English proficient (LEP).

Glascok County Transit operates a transit system within Glascok County and service areas. The Language Assistance Plan (LAP) has been prepared to address Glascok County Transit's responsibilities as they relate to the needs of individuals with Limited English Proficiency (LEP). Individuals, who have a limited ability to read, write, speak or understand English are LEP. In Glascok County Transit service area there are no residents or 0% who describe themselves as not able to communicate in English very well (Source: US Census). Glascok County Transit is federally mandated (Executive Order 13166) to take responsible steps to ensure meaningful access to the benefits, services, information and other important portions of its programs and activities for individuals who are LEP. Glascok County Transit has utilized the U.S. Department of Transportation (DOT) LEP Guidance Handbook and performed a four factor analysis to develop its LAP. The LAP is included in this Title VI Plan as Appendix G.

7.0 Transit Planning and Advisory Bodies

FTA Circular 4702.1B, Chapter III, Paragraph 10: Recipients that have transit-related, non-elected planning boards, advisory councils or committees, or similar committees, the membership of which is selected by the recipient, must provide a table depicting the racial breakdown of the membership of those committees, and a description of efforts made to encourage the participation of minorities on such committees.

8.0 Title VI Equity Analysis

FTA Circular 4702.1B, Chapter III, Paragraph 4.a.8: If the recipient has constructed a facility, such as vehicle storage, maintenance facility, operation center, etc., the recipient shall include a copy of the Title VI equity analysis conducted during the planning stage with regard to the location of the facility.

Title 49 CFR, Appendix C, Section (3)(iv) requires that “the location of projects requiring land acquisition and the displacement of persons from their residences and business may not be determined on the basis of race, color, or national origin.” For purposes of this requirement, “facilities” does not include bus shelters, as they are considered transit amenities. It also does not include transit stations, power substations, or any other project evaluated by the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) process. Facilities included in the provision include, but are not limited to, storage facilities, maintenance facilities, operations centers, etc. In order to comply with the regulations, Glascock County Transit will ensure the following:

1. Glascock County Transit will complete a Title VI equity analysis for any facility during the planning stage with regard to where a project is located or sited to ensure the location is selected without regard to race, color, or national origin. Glascock County Transit will engage in outreach to persons potentially impacted by the siting of the facility. The Title VI equity analysis must compare the equity impacts of various siting alternatives, and the analysis must occur before the selection of the preferred site.
2. When evaluating locations of facilities, Glascock County Transit will give attention to other facilities with similar impacts in the area to determine if any cumulative adverse impacts might result. Analysis should be done at the Census tract or block group level where appropriate to ensure that proper perspective is given to localized impacts.
3. If Glascock County Transit determines that the location of the project will result in a disparate impact on the basis of race, color, or national origin, Glascock County Transit may only locate the project in that location if there is a substantial legitimate justification for locating the project there, and where there are no alternative locations that would have a less disparate impact on the basis of race, color, or national origin. Glascock County Transit must demonstrate and document how both tests are met. Glascock County Transit will consider and analyze alternatives to determine whether those alternatives would have less of a disparate impact on the basis of race, color, or national origin, and then implement the least discriminatory alternative.

[Glascock County Transit has not recently constructed any facilities nor does it currently have any facilities in the planning stage. Therefore, Glascock County Transit does not have any Title VI Equity Analysis reports to submit with this Plan. Glascock County Transit will utilize the demographic maps included in Appendix I for future Title VI analysis.]

9.0 System-Wide Service Standards and Service Policies

FTA Circular 4702.1B, Chapter III, Paragraph 10: All fixed route transit providers shall set service standards and policies for each specific fixed route mode of service they provide.

Public Participation Plan (PPP)

Introduction

The Public Participation Plan (PPP) for Glascock County Transit was developed to ensure that all members of the public, including minorities and Limited English Proficient (LEP) populations, are encouraged to participate in the decision making process for Glascock County Transit. Policy and service delivery decisions need to take into consideration community sentiment and public opinion based upon well-executed outreach efforts. The public outreach strategies described in the PPP are designed to provide the public with effective access to information about Glascock County Transit services and to provide a variety of efficient and convenient methods for receiving and considering public comment prior to implementing changes to services. Glascock County Transit also recognizes the importance of many types of stakeholders in the decision-making process, including other units of government, metropolitan area agencies, community based organizations, major employers, passengers and the general public, including low-income, minority, LEP, and other traditionally underserved communities.

Public Participation Goals

The main goal of the PPP is to offer meaningful opportunities for all interested segments of the public, including, but not limited to, low-income, minority and LEP groups, to comment, about Glascock County Transit and its operations. The goals for this PPP include:

- Inclusion and Diversity: Glascock County Transit will proactively reach out and engage low-income, minority, and LEP populations for the Glascock County Transit service area so these groups will have an opportunity to participate.
- Accessibility: All legal requirements for accessibility will be met. Efforts will be made to enhance the accessibility of the public's participation – physically, geographically, temporally, linguistically and culturally.
- Clarity and Relevance: Issues will be framed in public meetings in such a way that the significance and potential effect of proposed decisions is understood by participants. Proposed adjustments to fares or services will be described in language that is clear and easy to understand.
- Responsive: Glascock County Transit will strive to respond to and incorporate, when possible, appropriate public comments into transportation decisions.
- Tailored: Public participation methods will be tailored to match local and cultural preferences as much as possible.
- Flexible: The public participation process will accommodate participation in a variety of ways and will be adjusted over time as needed.

Public Participation Methods

The methods of public participation included in this PPP were developed based upon best practices in conjunction with the needs and capabilities of Glascock County Transit. Glascock County Transit intends to achieve meaningful public participation by a variety of methods with respect to service and any changes to service.

Glascok County Transit will conduct community meetings and listening sessions as appropriate with passengers, employers, community based organizations, and advisory committees to gather public input and distribute information about service quality, proposed changes or new service options.

The public will be invited to provide feedback on the Glascok County Transit website GlascokCountyga.com and all feedback on the site will be recorded and passed on to Glascok County Transit management. The public will also be able to call the Glascok County Transit office at 706-598-3313 during its hours of operation. Feedback collected over the phone will be recorded and passed on to Glascok County Transit management. Formal customer surveys to measure performance, and listening sessions to solicit input, will be conducted periodically. The comments recorded as a part of these participation methods will be responded to as appropriate.

Meeting formats will be tailored to help achieve specific public participation goals that vary by project or the nature of the proposed adjustment of service. Some meetings will be designed to share information and answer questions. Some will be designed to engage the public in providing input, establishing priorities, and helping to achieve consensus on a specific recommendation. Others will be conducted to solicit and consider public comments before implementing proposed adjustments to services. In each case, an agenda for the meetings will be created that work to achieve the stated goals and is relevant to the subject and not overwhelming for the public.

For all public meetings, the venue will be a facility that is accessible for persons with disabilities and, preferably, is served by public transit. If a series of meetings are scheduled on a topic, different meeting locations may be used, since no one location is usually convenient to all participants.

For community meetings and other important information, Glascok County Transit will use a variety of means to make riders and citizens aware, including some or all of the following methods:

- In-vehicle advertisement
- Posters or flyers in transit center
- Posting information on website
- Press releases and briefings to media outlets
- Multilingual flyer distribution to community based organizations, particularly those that target LEP population
- Flyers and information distribution through various libraries and other civic locations that currently help distribute timetables and other information
- Communications to relevant elected officials
- Other methods required by local or state laws or agreements

All information and materials communicating proposed and actual service adjustments will be provided in English and any other language that meets the “safe harbor” criteria.

Public Hearing

The agency is not required to perform public hearings.

Language Assistance Plan (LAP)

I. Introduction

Glascocock County Transit operates a transit system within Glascocock County. The Language Assistance Plan (LAP) has been prepared to address Glascocock County Transit’s responsibilities as they relate to the needs of individuals with Limited English Proficiency (LEP). Individuals, who have a limited ability to read, write, speak or understand English are LEP. In Glascocock County Transit service area there are no residents who describe themselves as not able to communicate in English “very well” (Source: US Census). Glascocock County Transit is federally mandated (Executive Order 13166) to take responsible steps to ensure meaningful access to the benefits, services, information and other important portions of its programs and activities for individuals who are LEP. Glascocock County Transit has utilized the U.S. Department of Transportation (USDOT) LEP Guidance Handbook and performed a four factor analysis to develop its LAP.

The U.S. Department of Transportation Handbook, titled “Implementing the Department of Transportation’s Policy Guidance Concerning Recipients’ Responsibilities to Limited English Proficient (LEP) Persons: A Handbook for Public Transportation Providers, (April 13, 2007) “ (hereinafter “Handbook”), states that Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. 2000d et seq., and its implementing regulations provide that no person in the United States shall, on the grounds of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be otherwise subjected to discrimination under any program or activity that receives Federal financial assistance (Handbook, page 5). The Handbook further adds that Title VI prohibits conduct that has a disproportionate effect on LEP persons because such conduct constitutes national origin discrimination (Handbook, page 5).

Executive Order 13166 of August 16, 2000 states that recipients of Federal financial assistance must take reasonable steps to ensure meaningful access to their programs and activities by LEP persons (Handbook, page 6). Additionally recipients should use the DOT LEP Guidance to determine how best to comply with statutory and regulatory obligations to provide meaningful access to the benefits, services, information and other important portions of their programs and activities for individuals who are LEP (Handbook, page 6). These provisions are included in FTA Circular 4702.1B in Paragraph 9 of Chapter III (pages III-6 to III-9).

For many LEP individuals, public transit is the principal transportation mode available. It is important for Glascocock County Transit be able to communicate effectively with all of its riders. When Glascocock County Transit is able to communicate effectively with all of its riders, the service provided is safer, more reliable, convenient, and accessible for all within its service area. Glascocock County Transit is committed to taking reasonable steps to ensure meaningful access for LEP individuals to this agency’s services in accordance with Title VI.

This plan will demonstrate the efforts that Glascocock County Transit undertakes to make its service accessible to all persons without regard to their ability to communicate in English. The plan addresses how services will be provided through general guidelines and procedures including the following:

- Identification: Identifying LEP populations in service areas
- Notification: Providing notice to LEP individuals about their right to language services
- Interpretation: Offering timely interpretation to LEP individuals upon request

- Translation: Providing timely translation of important documents
- Staffing: Identifying Glascock County Transit staff to assist LEP customers
- Training: Providing training on LAP to responsible employees.

II. Four Factor Analysis

The analysis provided in this report has been developed to identify LEP population that may use Glascock County Transit services and identify needs for language assistance. This analysis is based on the “Four Factor Analysis” presented in the Implementing the Department of Transportation’s Policy Guidance Concerning Recipients’ Responsibilities to Limited English Proficient (LEP) Persons, dated April 13, 2007, which considers the following factors:

1. The number and proportion of LEP persons in the service area who may be served or are likely to encounter a Glascock County Transit program, activity or service.
2. The frequency with which LEP persons come in contact with Glascock County Transit programs, activities or services.
3. The nature and importance of programs, activities or services provided by Glascock County Transit to the LEP population.
4. The resources available to Glascock County Transit and overall costs to provide LEP assistance
 - a. Factor 1: The Number and Proportion of LEP Persons Served or Encountered in the Eligible Service Population

Of the 2,909 residents in the Glascock County Transit service area no residents describe themselves as speaking English less than “very well”. People of [most numerous ethnicity] descent are the primary LEP persons likely to utilize Glascock County Transit services. For the Glascock County Transit service area, the American Community Survey of the U.S. Census Bureau shows that among the area’s population 0.79% speak English “very well”. For groups who speak English “less than very well”, 0% speak [language one] and 0% speak [language two].

Appendix H contains a table which lists the languages spoken at home by the ability to speak English for the population within the Glascock County Transit service area.

- b. Factor 2: The Frequency with which LEP Individuals Come into Contact with Your Programs, Activities, and Services

The Federal guidance for this factor recommends that agencies should assess the frequency with which they have contact with LEP individuals from different language groups. The more frequent the contact with a particular LEP language group, the more likely enhanced services will be needed.

Glascock County Transit has assessed the frequency with which LEP individuals come in contact with the transit system. The methods utilized for this assessment include analysis of Census data, examining phone inquiries, requests for translated documents, and staff survey. As discussed above, Census data indicates that [insert a summary of either possible prominent LEP groups or the lack of prominent LEP group]. Phone inquiries and staff survey feedback indicated that Glascock County Transit dispatchers and drivers interact [frequently] or [infrequently] with LEP persons. The majority of these interactions have occurred with LEP persons who mainly spoke [language or languages]. Over the past XX years, Glascock County Transit has had XX requests for translated documents.

c. Factor 3: The Nature and Importance of the Program, Activity, or Service Provided by the Recipient to People’s Lives

Public transportation and regional transportation planning is vital to many people’s lives. According to the Department of Transportation’s Policy Guidance Concerning Recipient’s Responsibilities to LEP Persons, providing public transportation access to LEP persons is crucial. A LEP person’s inability to utilize public transportation effectively, may adversely affect his or her ability to access health care, education, or employment.

An on-board passenger survey was conducted to collect data on usage of and access to the Glascock County Transit services. According to the survey, the most common age among all the participants in the survey was 65 or older. This supports the fact that Glascock County Transit can be considered a senior transit service as most of its patrons are over the age of 65.

To further assess personal mobility options, each respondent was asked how he or she would have made the surveyed trip had Glascock County Transit not been available. The most frequent response was “friend of family member” (40 percent). An additional 25 percent indicated they would not have made the surveyed trip if the service was not available. This data indicates that the Glascock County Transit Service is very important as a primary means of transportation for its customers.

d. Factor 4: The Resources Available to the Recipient and Costs

Glascock County Transit assessed its available resources that are currently being used, and those that could be used, to provide assistance to LEP populations. These resources include the following: the International Language Hotline (1-877-746-4674) and access to Spanish translations when necessary. Glascock County Transit provides a reasonable degree of services for LEP populations in its service area.

III. Language Assistance Plan

In developing a Language Assistance Plan, FTA guidance recommends the analysis of the following five elements:

1. Identifying LEP individuals who need language assistance
2. Providing language assistance measures
3. Training staff
4. Providing notice to LEP persons
5. Monitoring and updating the plan

The five elements are addressed below.

a. Element 1: Identifying LEP Individuals Who Need Language Assistance

Federal guidance provides that there should be an assessment of the number or proportion of LEP individuals eligible to be serviced or encountered and the frequency of encounters pursuant to the first two factors in the four-factor analysis.

Glascocock County Transit has identified the number and proportion of LEP individuals within its service area using United States Census data (see Appendix H). As presented earlier, XX% of the service area population speaks English only. The largest non-English spoken language in the service area is [language one] (XX.X%). Of those whose primary spoken language is [language one], approximately XX.X% identify themselves as speaking less than “very well”. Those residents whose primary language is not English or [language one] and who identify themselves as speaking English less than “very well” account for X.XX% of the service area population.

Glascocock County Transit may identify language assistance need for an LEP group by:

1. Examining records to see if requests for language assistance have been received in the past, either at meetings or over the phone, to determine whether language assistance might be needed at future events or meetings.
2. Having Census Bureau Language Identification Flashcards available at Glascocock County Transit Meetings. This will assist Glascocock County Transit in identifying language assistance needs for future events and meetings.
3. Having Census Bureau Language Identification Flashcards on all transit vehicles to assist operators in identifying specific language assistance needs of passengers. If such individuals are encountered, vehicle operators will be instructed to obtain contact information to give to Glascocock County Transit management to follow-up.
4. Vehicle operators and front-line staff (i.e. Dispatchers, Transit Operation Supervisors, etc.) will be surveyed on their experience concerning any contacts with LEP persons during the previous year.

b. Element 2: Language Assistance Measures

Federal Guidance suggests that an effective LAP should include information about the ways in which language assistance will be provided. This refers to listing the different language services an agency provides and how staff can access this information.

For this task Federal Guidance recommends that transit agencies consider developing strategies that train staff as to how to effectively deal with LEP individuals when they either call agency centers or otherwise interact with the agency.

Glascocock County Transit has undertaken the following actions to improve access to information and services for LEP individuals:

1. Provide bilingual staff at community events, public hearings, and transit committee meetings.
2. Survey transit drivers and other front-line staff annually on their experience concerning any contacts with LEP persons during the previous year.
3. Provide Language Identification Flashcards onboard transit vehicles and in the Glascock County Transit offices.
4. Include statements clarifying that being bilingual is preferred on bus driver recruitment flyers and onboard recruitment posters.
5. When an interpreter is needed in person or on the telephone, staff will attempt to access language assistance services from a professional translation service or qualified community volunteers.

Glascock County Transit will utilize the demographic maps provided in Appendix I in order to better provide the above efforts to the LEP persons within the service area.

c. Element 3: Training Staff

Federal guidance states staff members of an agency should know their obligations to provide meaningful access to information and services for LEP persons and that all employees in public contact positions should be properly trained.

Suggestions for implementing Element 3 of the Language Assistance Plan, involve: (1) identifying agency staff likely to come into contact with LEP individuals; (2) identifying existing staff training opportunities; (3) providing regular re-training for staff dealing with LEP individual needs; and (4) designing and implementing LEP training for agency staff.

In the case of Glascock County Transit, the most important staff training is for Customer Service Representatives and transit drivers.

The following training will be provided to Customer Service Representative:

1. Information on Title VI Procedures and LEP responsibilities
2. Use of Language Identification Flashcards
3. Documentation of language assistance requests
4. How to handle a potential Title VI/LEP complaint

d. Element 4: Providing Note to LEP Persons

Glascock County Transit will make Title VI information available in English on the Agency's website. Key documents are written in English. Notices are also posted in Glascock County Transit office lobby and on buses. Additionally, when staff prepares a document or schedules a meeting, for which the target audience is expected to include LEP individuals, then documents, meeting notices, flyers, and agendas will be printed in an alternative language based on the known LEP population.

e. Element 5: Monitoring and Updating the Plan

The plan will be reviewed and updated on an ongoing basis. Updates will consider the following:

- The number of documented LEP person contacts encountered annually
- How the needs of LEP persons have been addressed
- Determination of the current LEP population in the service area
- Determination as to whether the need for translation services has changed
- Determine whether Glascock County Transit's financial resources are sufficient to fund language assistance resources needed

Glascock County Transit understands the value that its service plays in the lives of individuals who rely on this service, and the importance of any measures undertaken to make the use of system easier. Glascock County Transit is open to suggestions from all sources, including customers, Glascock County Transit staff, other transportation agencies with similar experiences with LEP communities, and the general public, regarding additional methods to improve their accessibility to LEP communities.

IV. Safe Harbor Provision

DOT has adopted the Department of Justice's Safe Harbor Provision, which outlines circumstances that can provide a "safe harbor" for recipients regarding translation of written materials for LEP population. The Safe Harbor Provision stipulates that, if a recipient provides written translation of vital documents for each eligible LEP language group that constitutes five percent (5%) or 1,000 persons, whichever is less, of the total population of persons eligible to be served or likely to be affected or encountered, then such action will be considered strong evidence of compliance with the recipient's written translation obligations. Translation of non-vital documents, if needed, can be provided orally. If there are fewer than 50 persons in a language group that reaches the five percent (5%) trigger, the recipient is not required to translate vital written materials but should provide written notice in the primary language of the LEP language group of the right to receive competent oral interpretation of those written materials, free of cost.

Glascock County Transit service area does not have LEP populations which qualify for the Safe Harbor Provision. [As shown in Appendix H, Glascock County Transit does not have LEP groups which speak English less than "very well" which exceed either 5.0% or 1,000 person.] or [As shown in Appendix H, zero speakers qualify for the Safe Harbor Provision as the number of person which speak English less than "very well" is counted as 0.0% and 0 persons.]

The Safe Harbor Provision applies to the translation of written documents only. They do not affect the requirement to provide meaningful access to LEP individuals through competent oral interpreters where oral language services are needed and are reasonable. Glascock County Transit may determine, based on the Four Factor Analysis, that even though a language group meets the threshold specified by the Safe Harbor Provision, written translation may not be an effective means to provide language assistance measures.
